MAY BEACH'S INDIANA HANDICAP.

Lakeside had a combination of good and bad weather for its wind-up Saturday, but a cracking big crowd was on hand to bid the Indiana track adieu until fall.

Secretary Nathanson overtaxed himself to give the half holiday race track patrons good sport, and his efforts were well rewarded, for the racing was by far the best seen at the Lakeside track this spring.

The principal attraction was the Indiana Handicap, with a gross value of $1,800, at three quarters of a mile, but beside this there was a nine furlong handicap in which eight good handicap horses started; also a half-mile two-year-old race with three of the speediest youngsters in the West entered, and four other events which aroused more or less interest.

With O'Connell, May Beach, Abe Furst, Algareta, Andes, Dr. Walmsley, Sam Fullen and Cheesestraw as starters in the Indiana Handicap, a good contest was looked forward to, but as far as the winner was concerned, there was no argument. May Beach, despite the fact that she was giving away weight to all the other starters, won from end to end. She was always as good as 4 to 1 in the betting and had quite a following at that price. Ross, who seems to be the best jockey around here just now, was up on the filly and he managed to get her away flying, took the shortest route and won all the way. Dr. Walmsley, with a pull in the weights was second and Abe Furst third. O'Connell, the 3 to 2 favorite, finished last.

From good authority it was stated that O'Connell was sent to the post a sick horse suffering from kidney trouble. He races in the name of J. J. Baron & Co., but is presumably owned by Tom Costello, the feed man. The public is fond of the faithful old sprinter and he was backed loyally at a favorite's price.

Jockey Ross' good ride and Molo's game race seemed to please the crowd, and after the nine-furlong handicap there was a grand round of applause. Molo is in rare form at present and with 114 pounds up he was heavily backed to beat several other good handicap horses, all of which seemed to have a chance worth backing because of the way the weights were allotted. Ross always had Molo close to the front, but, being on the inside close to the rail, there was great danger of getting interfered with, but the boy rated along with rare judgment and waited for the natural spread to come at the head of the stretch. Then he made his move, and Molo, flashing by the leaders like a shot, won the race cleverly by three-quarters of a length from Strangest.

Money Muss, Kid Cox and The Cuban Girl furnished a rattling good contest in the second event which was at a half mile. Money Muss, at even money, won but he had to be fully extended to do so, and had the race been differently run and the jockeys switched perhaps he would have been third. As it was The Cuban Girl got pocketed at the head of the stretch and Kid Cox suffered from bad handling.

Knightbanneret, after being beaten twice before at the meeting by ordinary horses was, for some unknown reason, made a 1 to 2 shot for the fifth race. He may have been the best and probably should have won, but Knight rode a miserable race and allowed Sidbow to beat him two lengths.

Icon, favorite in his last two previous starts, was at a liberal price in the sixth race, and awakening with a start he showed a surprising turn of speed and won by ten lengths. Starter Dwyer was good to Icon, sending him away about two lengths in front of the others, full on his stride.

The first event was easy for Little Reggie, and Crossmolina, at 10 to 1, came home first in the closing mile race.

HAWTHORNE NEXT.

The well patronized and well conducted two weeks' meeting at Lakeside having terminated, the scene of local racing shifts to Hawthorne, where two weeks of high-class sport seems assured. Many improvements have been made at Hawthorne this spring, over $20,000 having been expended on the grounds and buildings. The track has been worked over until it is in fine racing shape, the infield has been put in good condition for steeplechasing, which is to be a feature of the Hawthorne programs, and the buildings have been thoroughly repaired and repainted. As it stands today the course is one of the handsomest in America.

As previously announced, the betting ring will be open, arrangements having been made to lease the privileges to bookmakers at $100 per day each, irrespective of membership in the Western Turf Association. This does away with any chance of a syndicate book, and will insure more liberal prices for the betting public. No discrimination will be made against Western Turf Association men, but they will be treated with as individuals and not as a body, should any of them desire to draw in for business. Most of the booking, however, will probably be done by new men, some twenty pencillers who have been operating in the East and South having applied for the right to lay odds on the races.

The crusade against touts and tipsters is also attracting wide attention, as it is the first time a concerted effort has ever been made in this direction by the racetrack officials and the railways. If the plans of the Chicago Jockey Club are carried out, and Manager McEvoy says they will be if it takes every man Pinkerton can supply, the touts will be driven from Hawthorne.

Charley Hughes sent his horses to Hawthorne yesterday in charge of his foreman, he staying at Cincinnati himself with Lieutenant Gibson who is to start in the Latonia Derby Monday. Immediately after the Derby is run Gibson will be shipped to Chicago and will reach Hawthorne early Tuesday morning in time to get a rest before starting in the Turf Congress Handicap on Wednesday. As the handicap is worth $4,000 this year it is too big a prize to miss.

Another big bit of turf news developed yesterday when the Hawthorne management received notice from Trainer McDaniels, who handles George Bennett's horses, that he would ship the string, including Miss Bennett, to Hawthorne this week. This makes it almost certain that the two greatest fillies of the year will be seen here in a race, as Sofala is heavily engaged and will be sent to Hawthorne by Barney Schreiber. An effort is to be made to get rid of poor horses by weeding out the entry lists. Twelve horses will be the limit in all races at Hawthorne this summer, except in stake events. If more than twelve are named in a purse race Secretary Letcher will throw out the "dogs" and allow only the best of the lot to start.

Local transportation lines have arranged for an increase in the special train service to the track, and through express trains will be run on the Illinois Central and Burlington, the Metropolitan and Lake street "L's" and the connecting trolley lines.

OWNER J. GARDNER IN TROUBLE.

TORONTO, ONT., May 26.—J. Gardner was ordered to take his horses from the track today on account of the bad showing of Sinf, and Jockey Christopher was suspended for the remainder of the meeting for his ride on Charley O. in the fifth race of the opening day.

Time, 11½, 24, 36, 49, 1:11½.

Winner—B. c. by Galore—Conjectrix. Went to post at 2:37. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily after an early drive; second the same. Contestor showed the most speed and was drawing away at the finish, although he had to be hard ridden at one time to stall off Firearm. The latter was badly handled by Spencer, who took him back at the start instead of holding his position and was in a pocket to the head of the stretch. Trumpet was outrun in the first part of the race, but closed fast and had his head in front a furlong from home, but was probably short and tired at the finish.

Scratched—(17800) Vulcan, 116; 17735 Modrine, 109; 17732 Montanie, 102; 17980 His Royal Highness, 97.

Contestor, place, 7 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Firearm, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Trumpet, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. h. by Getaway—Blue Maid. Went to post at 3:08. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Blueaway was much the best. Slow to begin, he ran through his field in the first quarter and was drawing away at the close. Lamp Globe was easily the best of the others. Rare Perfume ran his race. Kriss Kringle did not like the going and would not run a yard. His race should be thrown out of future calculations. Monadour was short.

Scratched—(17951) Bon Jour, 104; 17956 Latson, 112. Blueaway, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Lamp Globe, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Rare Perfume, show, 4 to 5. Kriss Kringle, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Golden Garter—Nonage. Went to post at 3:38. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Golden Age showed the most speed in the going and won easily, but Bullman unnecessarily hustled him a bit at the end to stall off All Green. The latter went wide in the stretch and finished on the outside of the track. Prince Pepper can do much better. Jenkins eased him when he saw he could not get up.

Scratched—17952 King Pepper, 115; 18008 Prince Charles, 115; Ethics, 115; 17499 Blues, 115. Golden Age, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. All Green, place, out. Prince Pepper, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 24½, 36½, 49½, 1:03, 1:16½, 1:29½, 1:43½, 2:10.

Winner—B. c. by Islington—Songstress. Went to post at 4:12. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Kinly Mack had the advantage of clear sailing after the first quarter, handled his impost well and handily gave away weight to everything but Batten and Imp. Raffaello was outrun in the first part of the race and ran his usual game stretch race but was tiring at the end. Herbert had bad racing luck. He was in a pocket passing the stand and again on the turn end of the back stretch and was compelled to go around his horses in the stretch and closed fast in the last furlong. Survivor was interfered with right after the start and thrown out of his stride by hitting Wait Not. King Barleycorn gave it up when caught. Imp showed speed but her weight and the unfavorable going settled her.

Scratched—(12220) Jean Berand, 127; (17692) Ethelbert, 127; 15205 Prince McClurg, 118; 17737 Box 118; 17809 Approval, 114; 18011 Luthario, 107; (17809) The Kentuckian, 106; 17956 Latson, 103; 13021 Strathconan, 93; 18010 Petrucho, 90.

Winner—Ch. g. by Isaac Murphy—Bandusia.

Went to post at 4:43. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Van Ship is a good jumper and a good weight carrier and his race was a truly run one. Ronkonkoma is promising and should win with light weight up. Dr. Catlett's performance was a good one and he might have been closer up had Van Ship been in danger of being beaten at the sixteenth post. Philae did well. Tentore tired.

Scratched—17336 Judge Wilcox, 135; 17908 Nestor, 133.

Winner—B. h, by Favor—Belle Garland.

Went to post at 2:15. Off at the first break to a good start. Won cleverly; second, third, fourth and fifth were driving to the limit. Little Reggie was best and best ridden. Rose always had him near the front and saved ground by skinning the rail on the turn. Mellocole was tiring badly at the end. So was Cherry Bounce II, who got away flying and showed quite a turn of speed. Miss Patron ran as good a race as did the winner. She was all tangled up at the start and ran around her field on the first turn and finished stoutly and would have been a keen contender with better racing luck. Edna Gerry lost much ground by turning wide into the stretch. Isen showed but little speed and ran badly. Annis Palmer closed a big gap from the three furlong post home.

Scratched—18026 Bannie, 103.

Overweights—Nairete, 5 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g, by The Hero—Little Grove Queen.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 8 minutes. Start good. The first three finished close together and were driving to the limit. Money Muss was ridden to perfection and ran a cracking good race. He possesses all the qualities of a good race horse having a grand turn of speed and is as game as a pebble. Kuhn got away flying and hugged the rail and this helped Money Muss to win. The same kind of a ride would have landed Kid Cox first. Miller went wide on all the turns and rode a weak finish when the pinch came. The Cuban Girl had hard luck in the race. Hill tried to get through on the inside of Money Muss at the head of the stretch but Kuhn pulled in on him and had the filly in a pocket all through the stretch. It was a queer coincidence that the horses finished in exactly the same order as they got off. In fact, there was no changing of positions in the entire journey.

Overweights—Lindie, 4 pounds.

Winner—Ch. h, by Pardee—Outstep.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 5 minutes. Start excellent. Won cleverly at the end after a hard early drive; the next two were driving to the limit. Molo ran a high class race, and was excellently ridden. The horse is in his very best form now, and he carried top weight to victory in grand style. Ross was always in a good position, avoided all interferences, and never made a move until the natural spread came at the head of the stretch, then he sent Molo to the front like a flash. From the half-mile post home Strangest made up a lot of ground. With clear sailing Jolly Roger would probably have won. Rose rode him into a pocket on the first turn and then was obliged to pull up and go around his entire field. The colt closed an enormous gap down the backstretch and appeared to be winning on the turn for home, but the early effort he made told on him and he naturally tired. Orimar was much used in racing with Boney Boy early and both weakened at the end. Donna Rita ran a good race and seems to be rounding to.

Molo, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Strangest, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Jolly Roger, show, 1 to 2. Boney Boy, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. f, by Bobby Beach—Faithless.

Went to post at 3:50. At post 10 minutes. Start good for all but Cheesestraw. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; second, third, fourth and fifth under full sail. May Beach is a filly of high class and at present is in her best form. She was giving away weight to all of the other starters but smothered them for speed in going the first five furlongs. Ross understands the filly and rode a good race on her. He succeeded in getting a good start and saved every bit of ground possible. From the eighth post home May Beach bore out a trifle and finished in the center of the track. Dr. Walmsley, with a pull in the weights, made a good showing but was tiring at the end. ABE Furst and Sam Fullen had a battle royal for third place. Both horses were interfered with several times during the race and both stood the interference gamely. Algareta was outrun in the first part of the race but finished stoutly. Cheesestraw broke up several good starts and was eventually practically left. Andes was never prominent. O'Connell, when beaten, was eased at the end. Rumor had it that he was a sick horse suffering from kidney trouble.

Scratched—17948 Hermoso, 111; 11452 Tayon, 90.

Winner—B. c, by Siddartha—Miss Bowling.

Went to post at 4:25. Off at the first break to a good start. Won whipped out and fully extended; second handily. Sidbow showed the most speed and opened up a gap sufficient to win while going the first three-quarters. Hill took no chances and began to whip Sidbow for all he was worth at the head of the stretch and kept at him to the end. The ride on Knightbanneret was a bad one. Knight used miserable judgment in making his move entirely too soon and too suddenly. The boy also managed to get shut off on the first turn. John Baker ran his race and is in winning form. Nobleman showed quite a bit of speed. So did Gus Blass for about a half mile.

Corrected weights—Gus Blass, 81.

Overweights—Sidbow, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Ten Shiner—Belle Boiesau.

Went to post at 4:55. Off at the first break to a poor start. Won eased up. The next two were doing their best. Icon beat the barrier, recovered his speed suddenly and made a runaway race of it. In his last two previous starts Icon did not show any such form as this. Cogswell ran a good, game race, being under pressure through the entire route. Senator Joe was much used in trying to catch Icon in the first part of the race and quit badly in the stretch. Gibson Girl was never dangerous and was a bad 4 to 5 chance. After the start there was nothing to the race but Icon.

Scratched—18028 Curd Gillock, 110.

Winner—B. f, by Apache—Play Toy.

Went to post at 5:25. Off at the first break to a bad start. Won hand ridden and with something in reserve. The next three were doing their best. Crossmolina got a good ride and ran the best race. She was long overdue. Refugee was right there, fighting for the money all the way. From a bad beginning Donation ran a cracking good race and deserves attention in races of a mile or over from now on. Lanza showed speed but could not last. Brulare had no excuses other than a lazy ride. Neither Rosa Diah nor Rosavannah had a chance from where they got away.

Scratched—18029 Woodranger, 111; (18029) Ennomia, 107.

Helen Paxton ran a grand race from where she got off. Musket also got off badly and made up ground. Elsmore seems to be of no present account.
